

Food defence & incident management – developing a food defence plan

17 November 2016

Programme

08.30 Registration & refreshments

09.00 Introductions & welcome

Professor Tony Hines, VP of Global Regulatory Services, Leatherhead Food Research

Who you are, what you do, an incident you may be familiar with & what you learnt from it!

09.20 What is a food security defence programme & why is it important in Europe?

Deryck Tremble, Senior Director, Client Development – Europe, Asia, Africa, Pacific, AIB International-UK, Ltd

10.00 Food security threats in Europe & more!

Deryck Tremble, Senior Director, Client Development – Europe, Asia, Africa, Pacific, AIB International-UK, Ltd; Professor Tony Hines, VP of Global Regulatory Services, Leatherhead Food Research

- Food security threats in Europe
- The Bioterrorism Act in the USA,
- Government regulation & guidance
- Relevance of food defence to multi-national food manufacturers & suppliers

10.45 Refreshments

11.00 Developing the food defence team: plans policies & procedures

Deryck Tremble, Senior Director, Client Development – Europe, Asia, Africa, Pacific, AIB International-UK, Ltd

- Vulnerability assessments
- Threats to your operations
- Horizon scanning for future threats

12.45 Lunch

13.30 Vulnerability workshop

Deryck Tremble, Senior Director, Client Development – Europe, Asia, Africa, Pacific, AIB International-UK, Ltd

programme continued on page 2

Food defence & incident management – developing a food defence plan

17 November 2016

Programme, continued

14.45 Refreshments

15.00 Incident management

Tony Hines, VP of Global Regulatory Services, Leatherhead Food Research

- Major incident management, classifications & assessment
- Handling intentional contamination issues & recalls

16.15 Review & discussion

16.30 Close