What's New? An insight from Leatherhead

In association with Leatherhead Food Research

Prepared by: Mia Naprta, Market Analyst and Hazel Lee, Product Development Scientist

1. Solid marbled chocolate chickens

The completely solid marbled chocolate chicken is a new addition to Easter collection at Cocoa Loco this year. It is made with organic and fair trade white and milk chocolate marbled together, making no two chickens the same.

2. Strawberries and cream egg

The new Lindor Strawberries & Cream Easter egg is packaged in striking pink the gift box containing a large white chocolate Easter egg and 10 exquisite smooth melting Lindor strawberry and cream truffles.

3. Egg sandwich

Hotel Chocolat have reinvented their chocolate Egg Sandwich. This year they present two slices of chocolate pressed between two eggshells in a classic sandwich box resembling the traditional egg sandwich you would find in the supermarket.

4. Freddo Sprinkles

Cadbury's favourite frog shaped milk chocolate has been given an Easter twist - some colourful sugar sprinkles are added to the original. It retails at 25p for a single 18g pack

5. Jelly Bunnies

New from Bassetts this Easter are these cute Jelly Bunnies – a clever re-shaping of the known and loved Jelly Babies. The product is made using natural colours and 6 fruit flavours: Strawberry, Lemon, Lime, Blackcurrant, Orange and Raspberry

6. Beaded Easter Egg Keepsake

Godiva's Beaded Easter Egg features a floral design bejeweled with yellow sequins and colourful beaded leaves. Nestled inside is a selection of foil-wrapped Easter eggs in milk chocolate, raspberry ganache, dark chocolate ganache and almond butter

See more new products from Leatherhead next month. ■