

International Food Law

September 2020

Module 1

Section 1 – Middle East

Overview of food legislation in GCC

This session will include:

- Overview of food law in GCC
- Overview of general and nutrition labelling requirements
- Overview of nutrition and health claims
- Use of food additives and flavourings
- Halal definitions and requirements
- National sources of information and forthcoming changes

Overview of food legislation in Turkey

This session will include:

- Overview of food law in Turkey
- General and nutrition labelling requirements
- Overview of nutrition and health claims
- Use of food additives and flavourings
- National sources of information and forthcoming changes

Review of Module with questions and answers

This Q&A session aims to address specific questions raised by delegates

Module 2

Section 2 – Far East

Overview of food legislation in India

This session will include:

- Overview of food law in India
- General and nutrition labelling requirements
- Overview of nutrition and health claims
- Use of food additives and flavourings
- National sources of information and forthcoming changes

Overview of food legislation in China

This session will include:

- Overview of food law in China
- General and nutrition labelling requirements
- Overview of nutrition and health claims
- Use of food additives and flavourings
- National sources of information and forthcoming changes

Section 3 – Russia and the Eurasian Economic Union

Overview of food legislation in Russia

Includes an overview of food legislation in Russia and the Eurasian Economic Union with special emphasis on the following topics:

- Legislative structure and relevant authorities
- General and nutrition labelling requirements
- Overview of nutrition and health claims
- Use of food additives and flavourings
- National sources of information and forthcoming changes

Review of Module with questions and answers

This Q&A session aims to address specific questions raised by delegates

Module 3

Section 4 – Southern Africa and Australia

Overview of food legislation in South Africa

This session will include:

- Overview of food law in South Africa
- An overview of general and nutrition labelling requirements
- Overview of nutrition and health claims
- Use of food additives and flavourings
- National sources of information and forthcoming changes

Overview of food legislation in Australia

This session will include:

- Overview of food law in Australia
- Overview of general & nutrition labelling requirements
- Overview of nutrition and health claims
- Overview of use of food additives, flavourings & processing aids
- National sources of information and forthcoming changes

Section 5 – Japan

Overview of food legislation in Japan

This session will include:

- Overview of food law in Japan
- An overview of general and nutrition labelling requirements
- Overview of nutrition and health claims
- Use of food additives and flavourings
- National sources of information and forthcoming changes

Review of the module with questions and answers

This Q&A session aims to address specific questions raised by delegates

Module 4

Section 6 – Central and Latin America

Overview of food legislation in Mexico

The session will include:

- Overview of food law in Mexico
- Overview of general and nutrition labelling requirements
- Overview of nutrition and health claims
- Use of food additives and flavourings
- National sources of information and forthcoming changes

Overview of food legislation in MERCOSUR

This session will include:

- Overview of food law in MERCOSUR (Argentina, Brazil, Paraguay, Uruguay)
- Overview of general and nutrition labelling requirements
- Overview on food additives and flavourings
- Highlights of how legislation applies in MERCOSUR countries
- National sources of information and forthcoming changes

Section 7 – North America

Overview of food legislation in US

This session will include:

- Overview of food law in US
- Overview of general and nutrition labelling requirements
- Overview of nutrition and health claims
- Use of food additives and flavourings
- National sources of information and forthcoming changes

Overview of food legislation in Canada

This session will include:

- Overview of food law in Canada
- General and nutrition labelling requirements
- Overview of nutrition and health claims
- Use of food additives and flavourings
- National sources of information and forthcoming changes

Review of Module with questions and answers

This Q&A session aims to address specific questions raised by delegates